

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

PURE FOOD BILL.

A bill for the preservation of the public health, and to provide against fraud and adulteration in food, drink and drugs, has been introduced in the Legislature at Columbus. The bill is intended to prevent the adulteration of food and drink, and should it become a law, would no doubt go a great way towards protecting the public against the manufacturers of Alum and Ammonia baking powders, who are flooding the State as well as the country generally with their unwholesome product. The leading medical authorities everywhere condemn the use of Alum baking powders.

The Chicago Tribune, referring to the question of legislation on Alum and Ammonia baking powders, says: "It deals in a direct manner with an evil that must be cut down."

Following is a partial list of the brands sold in this state that have been examined and found to contain either Alum or Ammonia. Many of the Alum and Ammonia powders are labeled and advertised as "absolutely pure," in order to mislead the public:

"Kenton," "Calumet," "Crown," "Climax," "Chicago Yeast," "Grant's," "Don Bon," "Hotel," "Snow Drift," "Campbell's," "Cook's Favorite," "Forest City," "Zipp's Crystal," "Silver Star."

In addition to the above list there is a multitude of brands sold with a prize. It is safe to reject all baking powders sold with a prize, as the tests show they are composed largely of Alum and cost but a few cents a pound. Also refuse any baking powder sold for twenty-five cents a pound, or less; it is sure to contain Alum.

Surely nothing but their cheapness could induce the public to experiment with these impure powders, at risk of health. Aside from the question of health and wholesomeness of these condemned powders, and viewed from the standpoint of economy alone, a pure cream of tartar baking powder like "Dr. Price's" from its greater known strength and unquestioned purity will prove more economical to the user in every way.—Ohio State Journal.

Free Wool in Montana.

One of the largest wool growers in Montana writes to Justice, Bateman & Co., of Philadelphia, as to the outlook in the wool business in that State, and his letter is so faithful an account of the distress that the Democratic party has brought upon the farmers of the country that it may well be reproduced in these columns. The agricultural situation and distress among the wool growers of Montana is, after all, but little more severe than it is in Ohio, and if the farmers of this State encourage Congress to go on with their "tariff tinkering" by voting the Democratic ticket this fall then indeed will "the evil days be upon us." Here is the letter referred to:

"Your announcement of arrival of wool is at hand. Prices fixed to different grades are terribly ruinous to a Montana sheep man. A great change has come over the spirit of our dreams. Our check-book once so sought after and held in high respect by everybody and in such constant need is now a thing of the past. Bankers and merchants do not see you before you get out of your wagon when you come to town. There is no strife to sell your goods and to overdo your orders. A half-breed Indian may get a sack of flour on the promise of a load of wool, but credit to me is flatly refused. The other day I took account of my grub pile and found in stock 30 pounds of flour, five pounds of bacon, two pounds of tea, 15 pounds of sugar and 15 months depending upon it. It costs me about $800 per month to run my business. I have about 5,000 stock sheep now without a price. Mutton sheep will bring $3. One year ago stock sheep were worth $3, to-day they will bring nothing. I have known good brands offered for $1 per head and no buyer, and yet we can't afford to turn them loose, and so must continue the expense of keeping them. I can't borrow a dollar from a bank nor have I a dollar to my name. All sheep men are in debt more or less at the end of the year; their mutton and wool brings them out. This year we are under water out of sight. What to do we do not know. Most sheep men have decided not to be under the heavy expense of breeding any more, but run what we have got as cheaply as possible and turn them off for mutton. Our ranch improvements are all for the accommodation of sheep and are worth nothing for any other use. A sheep man does not farm at all, but buys a lot of grain from the farmer. I pay out on an average about $4,000 a year, and nearly every dollar of it is paid out in the neighborhood of laboring men, merchants and bankers, and now we probably will be robbed of our several years hard toll within the short space of a year or so, for let me assure you that sheep can not be run in Montana with free wool, and all this to gratify or to prove the falsity of a misguided political faction. Yet, Sumpter must fall and no argument will avail. I hope, if possible, that few Democrats at least in the Senate may have brains enough and humanity enough to stay the terrible ruin."
